As soon as the pkge arrives he will call on Sir Mangaldas Nathoobhoy C.S.I.
"a gentleman of highly respectable charac-ter and influence." (Walter Paris, the artist knows him. He is or was a Member of Council at Bombay. Known as a man of learning & eminently respected by everybody).
A nobleman has arrived in Bombay from Punjab – Sirdar Dyal Singh –
" a great man in his part of the country & a man of education." "very rich, influential & liberal in his ideas." M. T has spoken to him about the T. S. Much

Recd "Theistical Annual for 1878" and a small pamphlet entitled "Shri" from Mooljee.
From descriptions in the former the Brahmo
Somaj seems to be a sort of Unitarian Straight
& the Arya Somaj a Hindoo Theosophical Socy. Must make an alliance with the latter. It is under charge of Dayanand Saraswatee, Pandit.

Saturday, February 23, 1878.

Alfred H. Louis spent evening. Much depressed over Oriental situation. Declared his mission is to arouse the English nation to fight.

Afternoon J W Barton called. Spoke to him about the publication scheme of the T. S. He wants to be the N Y house to bring out the books. He recommends that the London publisher should print the books, & the Bombay and N.Y. houses take of them a certain number of copies at 1/2 the publication price, so as to divide the cost in three parts — the expenses of publication He mentioned 250 copies as the number to be taken by N.Y and Bombay. This plan would relieve the Pub^n Fund of the Soc'y from contributing towards that part of the expenses. & leaving it to pay only the Editorial portion.

Evening. We went & spent evening at Paris's studio. Met there W. Paris; Wimbridge; Magrath; Winslow Homer; Mr Lappin (of Scribner's Maga); Mr Cottier a Scotchman (art decorator &c); Mr Ingalls, his N.Y agent; Mr Mills, pianist (brother of S. B. Mills); O'Donovan; & Col George B Waring. A jolly time. Nearly all of them drank whiskey, thus making us bright and shining examples of virtue & temperance.

Monday, February 25, 1878.

Evening Louis called.

Wrote letter H.P.B. to Banner of Light about Aksakof and Slade

Wrote Aksakof giving him authority to publish Theosophical Society's report

Morning Wynneman and Sotheran came & spent some time.
Evening A.L. Rawson came.

H.S.O returned home & reported results of mission.

Letter from R. A. McCurdy enquiring about fate of Suicides.

Morning - Received orders from B. to go to S , & begin at once preparing. Things would shape themselves favorably. I learned have chances to make money at once.
Went down town, & before I got home had 4 chances turn up!

Visitors - Eveg Mrs E. D Robinson 21 Park Ave N.Y. A genuine seeress, though untrained. Has had a remarkable experience. Eats no meat nor anything that has died. Has gone ten days without food, taking only water. Travels out of the body very constantly. Reads thoughts. Sees the spiritual emanations of people.

O'Donovan brought Mrs Laura Curtis Bullard in her carriage. A pleasant lady and independent.

Friday, March 1, 1878.

Dr H. J. Billing of Chicago, husband to Mrs Hollis-Billing, the medium turned up & dined.

More business chances develop today. The hand of ⅓ is distinctly seen in this change of affairs.

Mailed the numbers of London Spt[a] a HPB had put them up in an illegal way & they had to be all taken to pieces and rewrapped.

Test at Fletcher Harrison & Co's shop, 266 West St, of steel-hardening process of David L. Eaton of Weatherly Carbon Co. Pa in presence of Mr Fletcher, Mr J H Beasley, Mr Edward Frith (of Sanderson Bros & Co Sheffield Eng) and young Mr Fletcher. Eaton first had a cold chisel tested. It cut a cast-iron socket all round without spoiling edge. Then tried one of the shop drills on a file, which it would not scratch. Then tempered it his way, & it bored right into it. Then I bought at a neighboring shop a 20 ct sailor sheath-knife. Hacked at an iron bolt with it until edge was quite spoilt – knicked like a saw. Eaton then tempered the blade, & the knife hacked iron & even cast iron without the edge being injured.

Evening – no visitors received. Marriot, Winslow, Hyneman and Sotheran called but were refused. S— stopped all night. Has had a fearful row with his wife. Is a miserable coward & not to be pitied.

Thursday, March 7, 1878.

Evening writing on H.P.B.'s answer to Scudder in Spiritualist.

Sotheran all night

Received letter from Rao Bahadur Dadoba Pandurung Bombay Breach Candy Road India, asking for information about Modern Spiritualism in America. Also note enclosed from K. M. Shroff introducing him.

Evening – Answered the above – writing until 4½ a.m. A comprehensive sketch of the movement & the origin plans and working of the Theosophical Society.

Sotheran all night.

Dr G. Bloede to Dine. Meanwhile Fichte he has lost his faith in mediums, thanks, as he says, to Isis Unveiled and my articles in the Spt!

Saturday, March 9, 1878.

Hyneman called again & tried to get in B-s room despite its being locked. The old gentleman is becoming childish.

Evening – Finished letter to Rao Bahadur Dadoba Pandurung.
O'Donovan called, and while here wrote a letter to the London Sp^{st} about the portrait of Fakir Y——.

Sotheran all night

HSO began Philadelphia "Times" article on "A Carnival of Fraud."

HPB locked herself in her room agaunst visitors.

Mrs Winchester called with a note for Sotheran from his angel wife!

Bouton called & was as indecent as usual.

Att. Louis called & stunned Sotheran with his Euphuistic English.

Evening George Inness, the artist, came & until midnight expounded his Swedenborgian metaphysics to us. He is a man of great natural intuition, who is trammeled by familiarity only with the Bible, in which he strives to see a meaning that the fraudulent compilers never dreamt of.

Sotheran all night, & showed me a sore on his thigh — a great treat!

To Menlo Park N.J. to see T. A. Edison, the inventor of the Telephone and Phonograph, in company with Dr G. Bloede. He was not at home but we saw the Phonograph operate in N.Y. upon an other, & I subsequently saw Edison. Found him a plain mechanic-like man. His inventions come to him by flashes as he walks the street. Is conscious often of a double operation of his mind — of carrying on simultaneously two distinct trains of thought, but these instantly lapse into one when he notices the phenomenon. Says he is searching after the possibility of telegraphing by means of the vital fluid. Has experimented with will power upon a pendulum, using rods of various kinds as conductors from his forehead to the object. Fancies he succeeded once or twice. Will join the T.S.

Evening, Dr J V C Smith and A H Louis (121 West 23rd St)

H. P. B's portrait begun by Le Clear

Writing of Grant's article continued.

H.B.B. sitting to La Clair

Wednesday, March 13, 1878.

Finished "Frauds" article for Phil^a Times. at 4 1/4 A.M.

Evening. Harrisse brought today's Graphic with an article on the arrival of Countess Pashkoff. At 10 pm H.P.B., H.S.O. and Harrisse went to call on her at 5 Ave Hotel & stopped until midnight. A theatrical looking woman. Once, perhaps, a tolerable beauty, but now passée: Clever, bright, adroit—mistress of all arts of society. A wrecked votary of pleasure & abandoned by friends, robbed by husband and servants, adrift on the sea of life. Death, after a feverish interval of tears and suffering, is her only refuge, and then ——!

Thursday, March 14, 1878.

~~Tomorrow Menlo Pk~~

Dick Morgan at office; cordial and friendly as ever.

H.P.B. still sitting to Le Clear & She also spent the rest of the morning with Mme Pashkoff. What a wretched history she brings back to us! What pictures of Russian aristocracy and Christian society!

~~Evening. Brought H P B home~~

Friday, March 15, 1878.

Letter from Mooljee Feb 11. announcing arrival of some of books (I. U.) that day. Says H P B has immortalized herself, or "Name will live till sun and moon will shine this globe."

Evening to Countess Paschkoff to bring H P B home (she dined at her h.). Met there a Belgian physician Dr Plasse, who came home with us & stayed until 2. a.m.

Messenger sailed for South America in the SS Grenada. The first step towards a great fortune!

Evening - Visitors: Heyneman, Ryerson, Dr D E Dudley, Sotheran, Contessa Paschkoff, Paris, Wenbridge, & Rev C. P. McCarthy, & Abt Louis. The latter took Contessa home.

Sunday, March 17, 1878.

Wrote "Omnis Probandi" article for London Spiritualist.

Evening. Visitor Miss Winchester.
HPB & HSO went to see Mme Paschkoff & explained matters to her & advised her going to N. Orleans.

Took Mme Paschkoff to look at room assigned her by Mrs Winchester (23 Gramercy Pk) She was charmed with Mrs W. & with her room & overflowing with gratitude to H.P.B. for finding her such a friend.

Today rec'd C. C. Blake's letter about Cabeiri to H.P.B. He offers his services in any practicable way to the T.S.

Sp't of Mch 8 contains abusive articles on T us both by Mrs Gen'l Showers, "Scrutator" and M A Cantab & others. Things red-hot over there.

Evening.
I Ransom & Sotheran's cards sent to Harrison - the former about HPB in Egypt, the latter about Calhoun's white spirit Indians.
HPB also sent card about Tedas, & wrote to Emily K.

Visitors Mme Paschkoff, Ransom & C.S. & Cyrus Monroe (who was not rec'd by H.P.B & I had to tell a lie about her being sick & get up a comedy with Ransom in the rôle of Doctor.

Bade Com. Genl. McCormick farewell as he sails tomorrow at 6½ a.m. for France.

Got certificates of W. Paynes as to crocodile pools in India, of Le Clear as to fakir's portrait, & Belle Mitchell, like the brave, noble woman she is, offered to write herself to the London Spiritualist to defend H.P.B.

Heard today from Messmore's advance party who had reached Port au Spain.

Evening. HPB and I went at 10.30 pm to visit the dying creature Burns of London, the "bath of roses" man. He is an innocent fool — not at all a bad man.

Judge volunteered to give his affidavit about the fakir portrait. & ought to be rewarded sometime.

Returning MS to J M Stewart Franklin Mass, & the Lord grant we may have no more sophomores sending us their MSS to read!

Took Mme Paschkoff from 5 Ave Hotel to Mrs Winchester's to lunch. 23 Gramercy Pk.

Isaac B. Rich called at office, & accepted invitation to dine tomorrow.

Evening. D A Curtis called back us to go as experts to see "Old Hop's" ghost. Deceased was a drunken night watchman whose body was found under a broken pier at foot of 39th St E.R. His eidolon has been seen walking since. Belle Mitchell and we two went in carriage from house at 11 pm, & returned at 1. Moonlight night, air calm but cool. Beside Curtis met reporters of the other papers, among them Connelly of the Sun. ~~Capt~~ Murphy, Captain of the Police for that District accompanied the party. A long & fruitless wait during which I smoked & talked with Belle, & HPB discoursed stoutly with the whole group of reporters with as much results as if she had poured water down a rat-hole.

Thursday, March 21, 1878.

Today was appointed for Mrs (H. G.) Daniels, Ed. "Golden Rule" to call & give see H P B.
She came & H P B was struck dumb. Instead of an old, snuffy Woman's Rights spouter there entered a young, pretty, independent, free-thinking lady, who asked for a cigarette!!!

Mme Paschkoff came with Dr De Plasses.

A. Mr Ayres escorted Mrs Daniels

Sent to Massey as registered letter H.P.B.'s article "The Ómnes Proteusi" with accompanying certificates about T........'s portrait.

Evening. Went to see Mme. Parchley, Wimbridge & Paris & all went to see Heller the prestidigitator & his "Second Sight" performance with Miss Heller in excellently done. The responses & readings of words & letters & descriptions of multifarious articles given by the audience being marvellous.
Afterwards went to Paris's studio & stayed until 1.45 a.m. Lost cars & had to take carriage home.
Met there Messrs. Folsom, Curtis (D.A.), Shinn, and Moran. Paris improvised a divan for the ladies by bringing in his mattress & laying it on the floor.

Received letter from Oxon with picture on envelope of a devil roasting a rib over a wood fire. The letter evidently written in a lucid moment, when he was not under control.

H.P.B.'s first letter to Peary's received from [illegible].

Evening spent at Mrs Winchester's where we saw Paschkoff, Davis, Wimbridge, C. Sotheran, & Miss Hosmer — who has a superb voice.

Wimbridge came home with us at 11 & stopped until 2 a.m. An honest, clever fellow, he is.

Recd MS of Sat B'hai from Yarker.

HSO was out of the body much last night & enjoyed it hugely, as usual, & sorry to come back but had to, and — found a big crackling on his cheek - "Facilis Descensus Averni!"

Mme Bettancourt called but was not received. Cyrus Mason also met the same fate.

Evening. Paschkoff, Curtis & Sotheran to dine. After dinner Paschkoff told ghost stories for Curtis's benefit & HSO interpreted them to him. Told wonderful adventures with H.P.B in Cairo and the Lebanon. (Evocations &c.)

1. a.m. A snow storm came up most unexpectedly and so Wimbridge and HSO took Paschkoff home in a carriage. Mrs P is a curious creature. Her ideal of society has not diminished her naturalness or innate honesty. She is helpless as a child, accustomed to be waited upon, cared for, & petted, in short to be helpless to the last degree. The society she depicts is something inexpressibly shocking, revolting to decency, a seething mire of moral pollution. She has herself been tainted but more a victim than the opposite. At 40 she seems a kitten in playfulness, a babe in helplessness, but withal a woman of tenderness and sincerity [illegible]
[illegible]

Three notes, one bouquet, and the MSS of her "Conference" today from Lydia P to H.P.B.

Evening. Maj Gen Abner Doubleday USA called. In "dazzled" & "intoxicated" with Isis Unveiled. Poor man, he was rewarded by having to carry home a huge scrap-book of cuttings about the T.S to look over!

Wrote HPB's letter to Spt about the Todas in reply to "Late Madras C.S." an insolent blackguard. H.P.B almost exploding with rage at Europeans, Americans, and the whole caboodle in general; the condition being mainly caused by reaction from Jack who was mad enough all day to bite the head off of a tenpenny nail. An angelic creature is our Jack when her bunions are stepped upon!

Sent letter to Sp^t in registered letter.

Evening Louis here, & a rough & tumble fight going on about Russia & England. Of course C. S. put her oar in every minute & made confusion worse confounded.

The girl Charlotte reports that even the morning newspapers that C. S takes into his room to read are saturated with his elegant odor.

Evening. Paris to dine. Mrs Robinson, the American ecstatic came in before we had finished, & I saw her in C. S's room. The poor creature is half insane. Talks of sitting in a Council in the 7th sphere & with Jesus and others. Col J. Christ has taken great pains to go through the Bible with her & show just what he meant by what is written there! Mrs R (921 Park Ave. City) says she is the first mortal for several hundred years, to reach her high degree in Spirit life!

Mrs J. W. Daniels called alone. A plucky little woman. Carries a pistol, smokes cigarettes in a porte-cigarette. Edits the "Golden Rule" (Rev W. H. H. Murray's paper), & makes things jump when she chooses.

Wrote to Emily K & to Carter Blake (32 St Oxnard St W. C)

Thursday, March 28, 1878.

H. P. B. received [illegible] for [illegible] from the [illegible] which Jno J. Cisco & Son cashed for H.S.O.

H.S.O. rec'd chk from Phila. Times

H.P.B. wrote Dr. Carter Blake to thank him.
Rec'd B of L. with "Cave of the Echoes" article.

Evening: Mme Pashkoff, Dr. de Plaisance, Wimbridge and C. S. here. Mme P. has been charged $20 by Mrs Winchester for one week's board — a most vulgar extortion, since she is rich, & has pretended she would be pleased to have Mme P as a guest. Dan......, who is on guard today, is disgusted beyond measure and his fancy turns lovingly to the jungles of Oudh Ire — no, I mean India.

Bronson Howard gave me letter to W. Jerrold Dixon of Savage Club London about my plays. The man for me to see is Wills, author of "Charles II", "Jane Shore", & other historical plays.

Mme Lydie Paschkoff

Bronson Howard, author of the play "Saratoga" and other successful pieces. Came to get materials for a [illegible] of the Detroit Free Press.

To dinner Mme Paschkoff, Dr De Plessé, & O'Donovan. The Doctor gave a most minute & frank description of the female organs of generation & discussed the importance of the "hymen" as an evidence of virginity! Nice subject for philosophers like ourselves but still debated in all seriousness as a scientific question.
H. D. Monachesi spent evening also Col Chaillé Long (Bey) late of the Egyptian army also Maj. Gen Doubleday.

Monday, April 1, 1878.

Thursday, April 4, 1878.

Receive discouraging news from Messonnier from Porto Rico. But I do not credit the reports.

Evening. Spent at Mme Paschkoff's, where we met Miss Bates, Weinbergh, Hewitt Long (boy), Messrs Thebo and Milton. Miss Bates and W— came home with us & stopped until 3 a.m.

To day received from Thomas A. Edison his application to be admitted to the T.S. and the form of Obligation signed.

Also letter from the Countess Marie of Caithness and St Dominique, Stagenhoe Park, Welwyn, Herts, England, in the most eulogistic strain about H.P.B. and Lux book. A regular gusher. Wants to join the T.S. Emma Britten prevented it when she desired to do so! How is that for high in a Theosophist?!

Evening. Wrote the Aksakof=Zöllner article Geometry & fixins.

Answered an ass named Jos M. Sioux, Fort Buford Dakotah Terr. & returned his $7 in registered letter.

Sent (registered) the letters to

Col. Steinberger, born in Pa., [illegible] age 40. Here with [illegible], and [illegible] sent to negotiate a treaty with the U.S. S. is a [illegible] bold, intelligent adventurer; a politician and materialist. Opposed to missionaries & disbelieving in Christianity, he tolerates both to secure his policy. Is forming a Constitutional gov't in Samoa. Population [illegible]. Christianity introduced 40 years ago & now generally established. He drinks, and appears to be setting the natives a bad example. A splendid chance thrown away to do good, spiritually, to a whole people.

Evening. Paris, Wimbridge, Miss Bates, Paschkoff, De la Pleasse(?), Mrs J.H. Daniels, Mr Ayres, Leo Ehrlich and C.S. Paris and Ehrlich flirting with Mrs Daniels – E. the favorite. Not much Theosophy there.

[illegible]

Letters from Emily K and O'Connor [illegible] [illegible] the latter "Psychography" which he very [illegible] describes as "[illegible] rubbish". It is weak, illogical, and [illegible] state.

The de Palm affair begins to grow interesting. Looks as if the estate [illegible] [illegible] something after all.

Evening C.S. talked all the evening.

Tuesday, April 9, 1878.

Worked at home all day [illegible].

Gen. Doubleday called in the morning, but HPB did not see him.

Evening: Mrs. J. W. Reynolds, Mr. [illegible] (the Colorado ranchero), Harrison, of St. Louis.

C. S. came in late from a meeting of the Executive Comtee in charge of the ceremonies attending the unveiling of a bust of Mazzini in Central Park & announced that I had been elected on the Comtee.

Had a discussion with C. S. & H P B about proposed degrees of T. S. ritual.

Rec'd notification of my election as a member of the Committee to erect the statue of Mazzini in Central Park. Mailed acceptance.

Evening. Monachesi + Sotheran discussed the policy to be pursued by above Com^tee. [illegible]

Morning. Rec'd Mme [illegible] at office to whom we are writing [illegible] to a mechanic whom she charged with asking too much for some work done for her. Was very explicit in asking me not to charge any fee. An old [illegible]!

Friday, April 19, 1878.

Mrs Elizabeth Thompson called in the morning & surprised one of our boys by asserting that H.P.B. affected her like a man — arousing in the gray ashes of her reproductive furnace the flame of desire. Nothing will make her happy except to come & sleep with H.P.B.! Hurrah! Things progress. ~~[illegible]~~ ~~[illegible]~~.

Evening all alone until the [illegible] returned & we discussed the programme for the [illegible] Committee.

H.P.B. wrote two feuilletons — one for each paper.

H. S. O at Albany

Monday, June 24, 1878.

P.M. HPB getting disgusted with her company and with housekeeping; [illegible] sent to Troy instead of Albany!

She turned up at the Delavan House Albany this morning, spent the day, partly at Dikeman's & partly at the hotel, & arranged to go to Dikeman's to stop while I should be in Albany.

Evening I wrote Henry Chamberlain, Carter Blake (about Emily and Jesuitism in general) Everyman, Kalis and sundry others, including Judge Palmer of the Mutual Life.

While in Albany I sent to Henry Chamberlain and Mortjee Sunday marked papers.

Received telegram from Judge Palmer that the [illegible] for which I have been waiting since the 20th came last [illegible] on the [illegible]. [illegible] Searching found the telegram had been misdirected by W. S. Moore.
Finished up my business with Mr [illegible] (Executor &c) and took night boat to N.Y. with H. P. B. Mrs Ditson's [illegible] for her $2 per day for H. P. B's staying, made no bones of showing her chagrin at our departure. A grasping, rude, vulgar [illegible], a faithless wife and a hypocrite. Ditson, poor man, is a victim but at the same time a moral, yielding, fool.

Trip down the Hudson by starlight. Water glassy smooth, beautiful effect of lights on the surface; the perfection of traveling, I think.

Received telegram from Judge Palmer that the order for which I have been waiting since the 20th was sent me on that day. After searching found the telegram had been misdirected to H. S. Moore. Finished up my business with Mr Chin (Executor &c) and took night boat to N.Y. with H. P. B. Mrs Ditson, paid for her $2 per day for H.P.B.'s staying, made no bones of showing her chagrin at our departure. A grasping, rude, vulgar snob, a faithless wife and a hypocrite. Ditson, poor man, is a victim but at the same time a moral, yielding fool.

Trip down the Hudson by starlight. Water glassy smooth, beautiful effect of lights on the surface, the perfection of traveling, I think.

Thursday, June 27. 1878.

Special meeting of Council of T.S. which voted to send [illegible] initiation fees to [illegible] through H.C.C

Curious how I seemed to encounter would-be suicides today. Morning, O'Sullivan who is poor, broke, has squandered the world's [illegible] and is ready to throw away the skin. Reasoned with him, paid him the $10 HPB owed him for Jacolliot's works, & advised him to try his chance in the next drawing of the Kentucky Lottery. P.M. At Lotos Club met Dr. [illegible] who was also wretchedly depressed and sat there for a half hour with me discussing the methods and morals of suicide. The self-same arguments and plans for concealing the suicidal intent were advanced by him as by O.S.

Evening. Wimbridge, and Gen. Abner Doubleday U.S.A. The latter signed application & pledge, and was initiated into the T.S. Explained objects of T.S at length to him, & received his assent.

Constitution [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] to the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] a "Citizen" of the U. S. of America. [illegible] [illegible] naturalization papers and [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]. Wrote an article for [illegible]. H. P. B. came here to dinner and then to Albany by railway for on a mutual speculation for [illegible] [illegible]. Will return — so he says — the day after to morrow. General Doubleday came just before his departure and remained till 1/2 9. Jenny returned to sleep at 10 with her sister.

a lock of [illegible] hair from her head and giving it to him.

Wednesday, July 10, 1878.

H. S. O. turned in at J. Prospect cut for Washington with mistake in the spelling of the ——. H. S. O. took it back to the city. Tropical heat. 89° at 10 P.M. A very oppressive day.

"World" has long editorial on H.P.B.'s citizenship. "Star" sent a reporter also to interview her.

Wimbridge to dinner & spent evening.

Received papers from London announcing the organization of the British Theosophical Society. C. C. Massey elected President and Emily K. — Secy pro. tem. A mighty problem this for me to steer them just right:— they are such an incongruous lot. Pity I have not some Theosophical bird-milk to send them to muse upon!

Received today from [illegible] [illegible] Germany [illegible]
E.K. certificate [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] of [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]
There were present on the meeting [illegible]
Cobb, Massey, Dr Wyld, E.K. & C.C. Blake

Wimbridge to dine & spend evening.

Held meeting of the T. S. today at office at which Mr Houston presented his resignation as Rec Secy & Dr L. Judge was elected to fill the vacancy.

Dismal letter from C. C. Blake about what the Church has done to him &c.

Wrote message & official letter recognizing the British Theosophical Society.

Official letter also from E.K. as Secy & W.Q.J. as Rec Secy notifying the action of the meeting at London of June 28th.

Evening I wrote letters to Ellie, C.C.M., Kiddle, & others, & mailed Carter Blake letter of H.P.B.

Visitors. Wimbridge, C.S. and Mr Holbrook.

Wrote [illegible] official letter [illegible] the British [illegible] Society. [illegible] letter also sent E. K. a [illegible] by W. Q. J. as Rec Secy [illegible] the action of the meeting at [illegible] of June 28th.

Evening I wrote letters to [illegible], C. C. M. [illegible], & others, & mailed [illegible] Blake letter of H. P. B.

Visitors. Wimbridge, C. S. and Mr Holbrook.

Went to East Hampton Long Island with H. P. B. and Wimbridge! By rail 97 miles & stage 7 miles. Stopped at Capt Wm Gardiner's hotel. Found him and his wife a simple, kind, obliging couple. Mrs G. got us a hearty supper & then we went afoot to the ocean beach. A glorious moonlight & splendid surf. W and I went in bathing. The whole scene of the Evening like a peep into Fairyland.

Rec^d telegram from Hartmann to return at once & attend to business in hand.

Sunday, July 14, 1878.

A superb day — bright sun, cool pleasant air, everything charming. We three took a carriage & went to beach, to see bathers. H.P.B. presented a most amusing appearance, paddling about in the surf with her bare legs, & showing an infantile glee almost to be in such a splendid magnetism.

Sat up all night so as to be ready to start at 4 a.m. Until midnight we all had a metaphysical & political discussion with a fellow boarder, a Mrs Jenkins of N. Orleans &c.

At 5 W and I took stage for cars, & came up to city. Breakfasted & dined together at Lamsoney. I pumped him as to his feelings for us & especially H. P. B.

Drafted contract today for Hartman and Washington Life Ins Co.

Letter from Cobb asking for loan of $50 so that he might come to America!

Tuesday, July 16, 1878.

This afternoon took Steamer "Drew" for Albany (after having from Hartmann a paper showing that I am entitled to 93% of my fee he may realize in the W. & C. G. case.

Wednesday, July 17, 1878.

Arrived at Albany at 6 a.m. Spent the day in transacting business (satisfactorily) and at 8 p.m. took Steamer "Drew" again for N.Y.

Beautiful moonlight both nights; but tonight the wind was astern and I almost stifled in my cabin.

Thursday, July 18, 1878.

Arrived early at N.Y. breakfasted down town had 3 hours consultation with counsel about Albany business, went home early offered no one there. Jenny off with her sister.
An intensely hot day — very, very much so.
Evening all alone. Wrote article for Frank Leslie and pamphlet for U S Life.

Went today to East Hampton.

A furiously hot day: some 30 persons killed in N.Y. by sunstroke.

Saturday, July 20, 1878.

Bathing and Vegetating

Sunday, July 21, 1878.

The same.

Monday, July 22, 1878.

A lot of cowards, the bathers here; they were afraid to go into the surf until I set the example.

And the same today.

We wrote letters to Socolis, Emily K., Carter Blake, Cobb.

And today the same scene at the beach.

Received Harry Aunt's letter of June 21 making love to H. P. B. and swearing that she belongs to the Aryans & not the Russian nation.

Dad dropped in to answer the above. He played classical pieces ~~with~~ to Paris's violin accompaniment

I mesmerized Mrs Alice Congreve, a fellow boarder, and made her partially lucid. A very intelligent, and theosophical young woman!

Very!!

The good Lama finishes letter to H.C.C.

My debate on T. S. matters with Mrs Congreve continued.

Laffin, Hinsdale and three other officials of the L. I. R Rd arrive to dine & pass on to Montauk.

Evening. The Lama plays medium for Paris, D. Mrs Gardiner & Mrs Congreve. Rappings only made.

Laffin & party return en route for N.Y. Dine & pass on.

After dinner I had a mortifying head-washing for making a certain experiment to try my will-power. It appears my theory has been wholly at fault in this particular. A change of tactics necessary.

P.M. Wrote rough notes on Omnipresence Omniscience & Omnipotence of the Divine Essence to be used in a supplemental letter to H.C.C

Recuperating morally. Frying physically.

Wimbridge here.

H P B making bathing suit for him.

Paris. Flapdoodles off to church with Mrs Gugren her mother & sister!
Wimbridge & I carrying crab net and bag and looking as disreputable as possible brought up the rear of the pious procession.
We caught many crabs, swam much and, returning, I found Mrs Gardiner, our hostess, in despair over the loss & threatened loss of boarders who have been shocked by H.P.B's rough-riding over Xtianity.

Memo. To day H.P.B asked me to name the day when we would receive further letters from India. I prophesied that they would come on Thursday of this week.

H. P. B. bathes in the surf with the rest of us, having on her new suit (of which she is the architect).

Evening. Wrote to C. H. Vander Linden
Rochelle
Ill
respecting application to join T. S.

Tuesday, July 30, 1878.

Letters today from Oscar (full of conceit & lofty patronage), E K (homiletic and gushing), W. Palmer Thomas (amiable).

Wednesday, July 31, 1878.

Geo Fawcett Rowe the actor, and author and his wife, accompanied by a Mr Fred Burchard, (clerk in Centre Nat^l BK NY) arrived. P.M I bathed with the gentlemen. Evening. We had a musical time in the parlor, and Buck, one of our boarders — an English whiffet — insulted us all by rushing in and shouting to me to respect the feelings of other people & not burlesque religious songs.

This morning H P B and I went to Sag Harbor in the Stage with the Rowe party. Dined there & returned by 3 p.m.

On arrival of the mail, my prophecy was verified, letters being received from H.C.C by both of us, and also Chrishnavarma's translation of the Rules of the Arya Samaj.

Letters also from Mme Shevitch and M. Marble +

Evening. We both wrote H.C.C. Dad about the attributes of the Divine Essence, and in response to his letter to H.P.B., and I about Masonry, Missionary work among Sp^ts by the Arya Samaj, the necessity for our agents to show phenomena. &c &c.

Friday, August 2, 1878.

My birth day — 46 yrs old — Aug 2, 1832.

Another prophecy fulfilled. H.P.B, at breakfast table asked Mrs Jennings & Mrs Congreve to prophesy when Wimbridge would come. Both said Saturday & H.P.B confirmed them, saying that she also believed he would come Saturday. Being also asked to prophesy I said he would come this Evening. And he did; and brought Wm Magrath, the painter, with him.

~~Another~~ prophecy about the [illegible] August: H.P.B. strongly averred that it would be a cool month, with more cold than hot days in the month and prophesied the contrary. We shall see.

Evening: H.P.B. with Wimbridge and Marquette strolled to the beach & walked [illegible] miles before they got back.

Sunday, August 4, 1878.

Went to bathe. H. S. O. E. W. Macginty and H. P. B. the latter provoked a last farewell admiration from the picnic of trains on the Beach by her smoking. Passed the evening with the Jennings and Mrs Corcoran at Gardiner's Hotel. H. P. B. was given "Cooney's" portrait. Went to bed at 1. Wimbridge wrote his letter to Harry and Cleand.

Monday, August 5, 1878.

Got up at 4 in the morning. H.S.O., H.P.B., Wimbridge and [illegible] took train to New York. Batchelor signed application
Miss Cowell desires to be one of us.
She favored us with a superb recitation of Clarence's Dream from Richard III d.

Both B and B have had curious psychological experiences and are enthusiastic inquirers into Theosophy. Blackmore in an Ecstasy has raised himself off the ground &
Batchelor says he can control his physical body effectually as to its sensations.
Tried an experiment with Miss C in Psychometry with successful results.

Prophecies of H.S.O. — The one about letters from India fails so far. The one about the lottery

~~To go tomorrow to Bowman's house~~

Evening. O'Donovan only outsider here

Letters from Mrs Peg Corson to H.P.B from [illegible] & from Thos A Edison to me acknowledging receipt of Diploma.

All day ringing of the bell. Mrs C. Daniels came & remained two hours bothering. O'Donovan went on with the sculpturing. Mrs D. made lov. to O'D. & the latter returned the drivel here. She went away sighing that her husband did not. Evening O'D & W. and HPB alone.
Letters to H.S.O. & H.P.B. with portraits. Official letter from Lippitt and Consuls to accept Fellowship. Wrote letter to the Revd Ayton, Oxford, Vicarage. Letter from Stainton Moses. Slept well.

Neuralgia!!! Will frighten it off to night.

H.P.B. wrote article for Petersburg. — O'Donovan [illegible] — Mrs O'Grady came to dinner. — Letter from [illegible] Vander Linden. Enthusiastic & proposes to send his mite of $1.25 every month to the Arya Samaj: Asks whether he ought not to learn Sanskrit or Pali. Saw, that [illegible] the blind lecturer. agreed with him to preach & stir up the Brahma in the West. Letter from Evans (Philadelphia) wants to order a Society pin (badge) for himself but is too stingy. Asks how* much. Answered, and sent him off to H.S.O. —

*Mac Grath

Evening. O'Donovan, O'Grady. Weiss. ~~Carter~~, Mrs D[illegible] & Ayres. Kept them all in the dining room. Wrote article. Mrs D. brought her picture. Sent a Theos. circular to Rev'd Scudder, Brooklyn, & wrote a greeting in Tamil at the corner of the envelope.

Friday, October 11, 1878.

Articles. — O'Donovan & plastering. Made a bunion on H.P.B's nose on the plaster. Dined here. After dinner Curtis; came to finish article on the disposal of Palm's ashes. Wrote in the closet room. Finished article. Began another. Also letter from H.S.O. to W's great surprise. Told him that H.P.B. saw one coming, which had an orange & golden atmosphere around it. O'Donovan finished his bas-relief & took it home.

Neuralgia!! damn-it. All on account of the premature withdrawing and selling off of the carpet. Damn D——

HPB Wrote to Mrs [illegible] a note introducing her to Madame von Vay, as poor Wittgenstein is dead and she is with his family

Letter from one who is impudent enough to sign himself M.Q. Junior!!! What next. Prophecy fulfilled. Letter from E.K. sends a circular from Constant. in Smyrna and recommends him for a theosophist. All right. Captain Burton elected Fellow of the T.S. of great Britain. Judge turned up.

Evening Wilder came & dined. went away at 9. HPB talked with W. alone till 2 after midnight. He confessed he saw three distinct individualities in her. He knows it. Does not wish to say so to Olcott for fear H.S.O. will make fun of him. !!!!!

Sunday, October 13, 1878.

Jenny went off at 7 leaving to Wim a parting note "Called away upon important business. Will be back tomorrow" No breakfast — Wim boiled two eggs & made coffee. Tom came at 10. went off at 1 with Wim. — Wim came back at 3. Mollie. Prepared cold dinner. At 8 Wm. went away to join Tom at theatre to hear Wilhelmj the violinist Louis came. Then Mr, Mrs & Miss Lackey. H. P. B. wrote answer to the Sun, on the infamous editorial which con[illegible] N. S. O. make of Kali' [illegible] on him and Xtians refuse him their money.

Evening. Batchelor, Maynard, Wing. Mrs Parker brought three Sp[illegible]. Dr Pike. — W. H. Pruden & Mrs E. Hallet from Boston. Pike looking at ~~H~~ several times started and said that no one in the whole world impressed him as much. One saw in HPB a girl of 16, at another an old woman of 100, & again a man with a beard!! Wim & Tom returned at 11 from theatre. Tom is here yet with W. & O'Donovan in the dining room chatting and it is 1/4 to 1 after midnight. O'Don brought plaster cast and it is the portrait of Mrs ~~Win~~ Winchester!! Will correct it to morrow. Afraid for N. S. O. & his business.

Lackey drunk. — evidently.

Magnificent news! Letters from Massey & Billing. C.C. Blake at the last theosophical meeting accused us of the N.Y. & the Arya Samaj of practicing Siva worship—performing the Linga & Sakti Puja!!! What next? Wrote to C.C. M. & Wim. Wrote also expressing disgust. Wrote to H.S.O to come home. H.P.B. wrote to E.K.—and this letter will be the last.

If H.S.O not ready I have to go.

O'Donovan, died & demanded her.

Evening. Mr. Grote & his clairvoyant Doctor—a good looking female. Miss Lockey called. H.P.B. wrote to Harry C.C. & sent copy of Massey's letter. Let him answer.

Tuesday, October 15, 1878.

H.P.B. wrote to Billing & Thomas — denying the calumny and calling Carter Blake an "infamous liar."
Drove H.P.B. along the streets for two hours.
H.S.O. succeeded in writing a French postal-card. First wrote mille, very correctly, then crossed it out & put mile which is not. His first inspiration always better. Sent to H.S.O. Massey's & Billing's letters. Orders received for him to create an indignation meeting whether in reality or fancy. On his obeying depends much. H.S.O. expects to get $5,000.
Evening. Curtis & Wallace. Looks ill. H.P.B.'s is afraid he won't last long. Finished his book and mentions in it three times H.P.B.'s Isis: calls it one of the grandest productions of the 19th century.
H.P.B. sent a Telegram to Massey, Athenaeum Club, London "Infernal lie!" — and paid — 5 dollars in gold. Money furnished by M. . .

Letter from H.S.O. Did not get receive the registered [illegible] with money and Billing's letters. Ordered to write to him. H.P.B. came & raved. Well, I do not wonder. X
Wrote the letters to H.S.O & Ditson.
Tom came & dined before going to theater.
Evening. Wrote letter of profession to faith to H.P.B.
Mrs Esther Hollis. Dr Pike. Dr W. H. Bowden and Miss —? a friend of Miss Monachesi. Want to join the T.S.
Took in the afternoon Isis to Dunlap's Express Co with introduction letter from Curtis to Dunlap. Visited W. Q. Judge. Went with him & not having found Dunlap left the Isis to his care. Expressage to Paris only $2.—!! Got an aerial drive there and back. Saw Townsend.

Thursday, October 17, 1878.

Letter from Bouton demanding portrait. All ready.
Letter from Harrington and — Harry chained to Olcott Merle brought his portrait and dined. Carter came before and is going to stay all night. Wrote article for the Star on Cremation. No letters from H.S.O.
Found a postal-card in french from H.S.O received apparently on Monday, & which Jenny forgot to hand to me.
Wimb. found it in the kitchen. O America, oh servants of America! H P B. received a Newspaper from Australia Avoca news with her article translated from Aksakof on Zöllner & Slade.
Sent by Leitsner or some such thing.

If H.S.O. does not write we will kill him
— the heathen wretch!

H P B's article in the Sun with [illegible] [illegible]
Letter from H. S. O. to [illegible] & C. C. [illegible]. [illegible] for Judge he came half an hour after that. — Mrs [illegible] [illegible] came & forced to send a blank [illegible] to Haydon the editor in Providence. I wrote to him for H S. Always main chance first. [illegible] and upset my rest. Drived. Went away. Paid the H S in Newton.

Evening passed with Wainbridge. [illegible] & [illegible] for India. Letter from Bloede. & [illegible] for article in the Sun

Bloede

Letter from S. K. and from H. S. O. to Swami HPB. Wrote my her explanation to Massey. Dinner. A Miss Potter — tall young, intellectual, daughter of a millionaire came with a card of introduction from E. V. London. I insisted upon seeing her. Lived half her life in Herbert Spencer's family. Knows Huxley & Tyndall. Interested in theosophy, doubts Sp[iritualis]m. She & her eight sisters all Materialists. Herbert Spencer read Isis and found some beautiful pages and new original ideas. She is going to write to him about H.P.B. Says that E. K. is completely under C. C. M.'s influence. Colby and a Spiritualistic idiot, both sat three hours. Colby as spoony as sugar. Wants to send us paper to India.

Dinner. Tom and O'Donovan. H P B. bad humour. Townsend brought letter from Judge Hunt after Maynard. Then they sat till 1 A.M. Sadderstown Cincinnati came in Bowling & Hong Kong!! for H S O & H P B. time we should send them subscription money I should say.

Article in the Sun on the "Baron's Ashes" by Curtis
Sent Henry C.C., Revd Mohottiwatte, the Alexanders etc.
Sent copies of official letter to Henry C.C. and to Massey our protests. Gave all to Maynard to mail. — Good Fellow. — Marble before dinner. After dinner Mr and Mrs Evans from Philadelphia. Dr
Parker — Linda Dietz. — Curtis, O'Donovan — Maynard
& Tom. — Tom brought owl & paid for it. Evans said that H.S.O.'s business proceeded very fairly W— dined at Mathews and has prospect of work for $200. Good job. Linda Dietz went to join Theosophy. Sent Tom's $5. to Henry C. by Maynard. Could'nt help telling Wimbr that I felt H.S.O. coming home — his atmosphere very close. He ought to be very near coming. 2 A.M. now therefore my prophecy is not for Sunday. Well we shall see tomorrow. Wimbr thinks not.

Monday, October 21, 1878.

No letter from Mr Olcott. Spiritualist announcing death of Prince E. Wittgenstein and copying our Rules of the Arya Samaj in full, without commentaries. The Sun gives a short thrust to the [illegible] ashes but speaks rather flatteringly than otherwise.
Telegram from Moloney - Means to sleep at home to night. Therefore I was right to feel the old Sagittar near. Atmosphere does not agree with me. As for H.P.B. splendid.
Letters from India from H.C.C. to H.P.B. to Wimb and H.S.O. Letter from Moolji to HPB and papers. Dear H.C.C. is he not bamboozled. Books safe. - H.S.O. returned from Philadelphia. Has good hopes.

Instead of going to business at 9 - H.S.O went at 12. Visitors came - Mrs Hallet and Miss Somebody - None received. Wont have them. O'Donovan came had dinner with us. After dinner Harrison and — H.P.B. left them all in the dining room and sat with H.S.O. in the library to write letters. H.S.O. wrote to Hurrychund and Miss E. Kislingbury. Narayan left watch - and in came in Sahib. The latter with orders from Serapis to complete all by the first days of December. Not to change one particle of the design plans etc. Well, - H.S.O is just playing his great final stake.

And playing it successfully [illegible]. Got names of 13 [illegible] men in N.Y. to [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] which is to be used to [illegible] from the Syndicate and to [illegible] the appointment from the alleged President. Sent [illegible] to [illegible] for his [illegible].

[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] with me and [illegible] [illegible] the theatre by [illegible]. [illegible] went [illegible] to the [illegible] [illegible].

Evening. [illegible] [illegible] and Miss [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] seems a [illegible] [illegible] fellow.

Waiting to hear Blodgett's decision about change of Syndicate paper.

Went to see Belle & found her poorly: she moves to Orange to live next Tuesday.

Curtis dined with us & worked on article on Mme Shevitch.

Evening. Received Pall Mall Gazette of Oct 9 and 11 with C.C. Blake's Jesuitical insult to the Arya Samaj and C.C.M.'s defence of that Society.
H.P.B. wrote H.C.C. about this, enclosing copies of the two paragraphs and letter today received from Blake accepting Diploma of T.S. of A.S.!!
She and I wrote Blake a stinging letter in reply to same, & sent copy to H.C.C.
I wrote H.C.C. to send Daniel Kennedy's Sadharshana Chintamika to care Baring Bros & Co London, & postal card to Wason to send spec. of Spirit (fakir portrait) to H.C.C.

The Syndicate slowly germinates.

O'Donovan, Wimb, HPB and I were at dinner when Jenny brought in a letter from Massey left at the moment by the postman. Before it came HPB announced its coming and nature of it. After I received it & before the seal was broken she said it contained a letter from Dr Wyld & read that too without looking at it. Massey's letter contained a message to me from the Divine Brother [illegible] determining the [illegible] with a narration of particulars of which certificate signed.

HPB has written letters to Wyld and others to Curtis Blake and C. C[illegible].

Visitors Mrs Barrows and Mr Thompson – the latter a big two-fisted medium.

The Syndicate slowly germinates.

O'Donovan, Wimb, HPB and I were at dinner when Jenny brought in a letter from Massey left at the moment by the postman. Before it came HPB announced its coming and nature & after I received it & before the seal was broken she said it contained a letter from Dr Wyld & read that too without looking at it. Massey's letter contained a message to me from the Divine Brother, as determined the proof of his with a narration of particulars & which certificates, etc.

HPB & I write letters to Wyld and others to Carter Blake and C.C.M.

Visitors Mrs Barrancy and Mr Thomson — the latter a big two-fisted medium!

Germination continues.

Received two letters from C. C. M about Blake matter, one enclosing a letter of B's as Jesuitical as possible, and also B's second paragraph in R. P. Gazette of 13th Evening Visitors. G. V. Maynard, Dr J. Pike (healer), Capt David Day, Mrs Pigeon (of Boston), Mrs Gridley a professional medium, Mrs Hallet of Boston, and Mons Frank Daulte, Private Secretary to Chief Justice Daly of the Court of Common Pleas. Mr Daulte made application & was initiated into T. S.

The Sabbath! The Lord's (not Lord Beaconsfield's) Day
"This is the Day the Lord has made
He calls the hours His own"

Worked like the devil all day at cooking, setting the table, washing dishes etc.
Wrote H.C.C. more about Blake case, sending him extracts from correspondence bet. Massey and Blake + C.C.M's comments on "the little Brown Man".

H.P.B. wrote Massey + sent copies of letters containing my reply to the Pall Mall Gazette article on the T.S., as well as the [illegible] Editorial of the previous day, to H.C.C. + others.

Visitors. Mrs Daniel, Marble, Tom, Mr Shinn, O'Donovan
Delivered to Mrs D. her diploma and also that of Dr. F. Hayden Editor of the Providence Press, Prov. R.I. Gave her a paper empowering her to initiate Mr Hayden.

Shinn + others looked over all the photo albums.

Canvassing for Syndicate continued. Good prospects.

Evening. O'Donovan, Wint, Rance, & I went to Broadway Theatre to see Miss Von Stamwitz in "Messalina. Empress of Rome." Comical.

Afterward. Wrote letter to Ed Pall Mall Gazette threatening to publish the story of the Little Brown Man if he did not do the square thing. Also to C. C. M. forwarding the above & requesting him to hand it personally to Greenwood.

Tuesday, October 29, 1878.

Canvassing continued - Brewster & Co join Syndicate.
Frank Doult. called

Evening: Went to Union Sq. Theatre to see "Mother & Son". Saw Tom for the first time on the stage. Looked her part well she went to try & get better to 15th Street at Mr Pollock - her brother in law. Talked with Mrs Howell an hour or so and then H P B returned home on foot through the Park. Lovely day

Sat under the trees near the pond & caught shells Came home at 3 and found Belle Mitchell - poor, dear soul! Miss Hatch came home.
Letter from Hurrychund. Thinks we are going directly and writes but two words. Well - Vadiamo!

H.S.O. turned up at 7 - [illegible] progress
A friend of Wim's, Mr Dias Petrie came. He is a kind hearted psychological fellow. Has gift of prophecy & vision. Foretold H P B's death at sea suddenly. Doubted that she would reach Bombay. Hinted shipwreck for us all in which Wim and I would be saved & H P B lost! Rook!

Morning ... Maguire called & brought her the ... [illegible]

[illegible]

Pete asked Miss G. whether H. B. had money; then whether Wm could lend him some. Having received negative answers to all his questions he departed dispirited.

Very big cold — Afternoon at 5 P.M. a man came; would not allow Jenny to announce him & gave no name; forced himself after her, and introduced himself — very strangely. An old, respectable white haired party. As soon as seated, he mildly declared that he had come to subpoena H.P.B. in the Vanderbilt case!! H.P.B. told him she did not know the Commodore, never saw him. Yet, the old party served her with a paper in which the "people of New York State" commanded the new citizen to appear in the Court of the Surrogate & say all she knew; after which he delivered to her on behalf of "the people" a silver dollar, gave bill to Beecher, & said the old Commodore was no better, paid compliments, said that Mr Lord had charged him to tell H.P.B. that they would give her "plenty of money" if she helped them to win the case and — departed.

Evans of Washington did not come.

Tuesday, November 12, 1878.

Fearful sleepless night on account of the cold & coughing. Got up at 8, sent for a carriage & went to 214 Broadway to Lord's office: was received politely and cuddled; declared (H.P.B.) that knew nothing, but was asked to remember & try to think of something!! Was asked to go to Court; and promised money again.

H.P.B. went to court and produced sensation being seated on witness's chair. William Vanderbilt & lawyers stared at her all the time. Would not swear on the Bible and declared herself a heathen. Disgusted went away. Vanderbilt's lawyer ran after her, & tried to make friends; was sent 2 Hell. Her carriage was followed by another carriage. Will wait developments.

George at dinner.

Evening Mr and Mrs O'Sullivan. Theological & anti-Christian conversation. H.P.B. played a trick on me by suddenly fainting to the great dismay of Walter and Wim. Used the greatest will-power to put up the body on its legs.

Letter from C. Daniels wants biography for a series of Boston Index or something else of articles on H P B.

Saturday, November 16, 1878.

Curtis to dine & got points for Sun article on the auction.

Maynard & Dr. Barrick, a mystical Hebrew physician. A strange, very strange man. Has a prescience as to visitors' death and a spiritual insight as to disease. Old, thin & stooped; his thin, fine, grizzled hair stands out every way from his noble head. Rouges his cheeks to relieve their natural pallor. Has a habit of throwing his head far back & looking up into space as he listens or converses. His complexion waxen, skin transparent and as thin as tissue paper. Wears thin summer clothes in the depth of winter. Peculiar habit to say, when answering: "Vell, see here, see, twan."

Visitors Evening. Curtis, Dr Pike, Mrs [illegible]
Mr Dyke (Nibs - the Infant Prodigy), [illegible]
Cowdle, Linda Dietz, O'Donovan.
W. ? read the girls' fortunes in cards

Tuesday, November 26, 1878.

Had a delightful interview with Mr Wilcox who feels the same as I do & will be a most useful ally in a certain quarter.

News from Hartman that Westbrook has decided the Albany Case in favor of the Receiver.

Thus two good prophecies made last evening happily are already fulfilled.

Wrote Morgan to receive samples of fruits shipped by the Syndicate to his care.

Bright prospects for Syndicate. Had a very agreeable talk with Henry Lewis about Reading R.Rd Contribution & at his request wrote him a letter to lay before the Reading Board.

Evening — Call from James R. Heenan of the [illegible] & Press, 45 Broadway, on behalf of the [illegible] & gave him [illegible] about the [illegible] [illegible] ([illegible]) [illegible] called. [illegible] the [illegible].

Thursday, November 28, 1878.

Thanksgiving Day — and my last in the U.S.:

I dined with Emmet R. Olcott at 2 and took the 4½ p.m. boat for Fall River.

Wm. brought Pietro & Macgrath to dinner. H.P.B. had dinner at 3.

Marble turned in; and as Jenny went away made him as useful as he is ornamental.

Evening. Pietro laid out cards for H.P.B. Prognosticates delay for departure but safe arrival to Bombay. Also death through murder for H.P.B. in 8 years, at the age of 90. (!!) Nothing like clairvoyance.

Mrs. Haskell & daughter & Mr Parsons, & Dr. P.K. talked H.P.B. to death.

From 10½ alone with Wm. Go to bed directly.

Rec'd Jany 5.

Morning. Letters from Mrs Daniels, a [illegible] of Dr Buck, Cincinnati 305 Race St. - wants to join Society (answered & circulars sent) and Wilder.
Had seven letters to write and no money, & no stamps. Had to call Schick - Got fearfully mad - [illegible] it is no fault of mine. Alas! poor "Junius" - if he only knew what he does not know. If he reads this - let him remember - à bon entendeur salut. He gave 50 cents for stamps.
Answered the Russian aunt; Buck; Wilder; Daniels - wrote for portraits to Hayden and [illegible]. Wrote Judge likewise.
Dinner. - Enlivened by a telegram from Judge to Wimb. Tells him "to wait for him early in the morning, important news;" - perhaps arrest? If so, Wimb will have to clear out before us to London. Let him go to France.

Evening. Blues - crisis & other piggish feelings. - [illegible] solitary. Curtis - wrong dumb-waiter bill at nearly 11. Told that Dorn was opposed to having a new article about "the Medium" - and so, Curtis took his article on the "Lottery in the Lamasery" to the World.

Saturday, November 30, 1878.

Belle Mitchell came at 12 and took away the Sahib for a walk & drive. Went to Mally's. Had to materialize rupees. H.P.B. came home at 4. No one at dinner ~~Wimbr~~ but Paris.
After dinner - Paris signed an application & went off with his violin to a party. Wimbr also went off and returned at 2 - p.m.
Evening. Maynard helped me in packing to pass time away & made himself generally useful. Mrs. Weller came & brought a bag of Phren. Journals.
A letter brought from Judge by Wimbridge from Ph. H. C. Christiana writes a declaration of love & send official letters to the Council, things & P. A. Smith. Them all very politely.
Letter from E. Wellington with resignation in it. Too Christian! Too ~~[illegible]~~ Blakian I should say. On this ~~[illegible]~~ Villainous brood! When shall we be rid of it!

About - from 17 to 23 days, left. We will see how the Jamies will be ready!

[illegible] ~~depends on that~~

Morning. H. U. K in bath. Heard H. S. O. S. ~~[illegible]~~ voice — the Jamies had returned from Providence.
Col "Tool Company" to sign for $500. Saw Hayden the latter — coming here Saturday.
Furniture & rest must be sold or disposed of before the 12th. Orders.
Dinner. The faithful Marble turned in. Now O'Donovan & Batchelor. Who next?
V. P. B. answered H. P. B. Bombay. He will receive the letter about a fortnight before her arrival. All right.

Evening — Mr & Mrs Maynard, "Tom" Marble, Batchelor, O'Donovan, Curtis, Col Chaillé Long!

Monday, December 2, 1878.

Letters from H. J. Billing: — Palmer Thomas and a speech from Chicago — Stanley Sexton & Part Now—. The latter demand to join the TS and to take it "three times three" degrees from the first. Enquires whether H. P. B. saw or felt his magnetic subject's double six months ago. The ass! Answered all the letters.

Fearful rain. Wimb. did not go to the office but lounged in the arm chair by H. P. B.'s side and slept soundly. H. S. O. gone this morning to Philadelphia. His last and conclusive trip to day. Well — may I — speed him. Paris at Dinner.

Evening. A Mr Thompson from Montreal. Ex-clergyman, whose eyes were opened to the frauds of Xianity; who read Isis, "learned much in it", and was bound to see its author. Harrisse came & disputed at Thompson's [illegible] serious talk, walked off into dining room & retired early. Found the Rosy-Cross jewel missing from the bureau drawer. Know who took it. It will come back. Doubleday came in late & put $3 into Arya Samaj fund. Noble man!

Letter from Lomas (Wash.) gushes — [illegible] and winds up by saying that it is his kismet fate to join us in India.

Went for Sabil's errands today.

Marble brought album, and fixed day for auction sale on Tuesday next Dec. 10.

Judge at dinner.

Evening. Letter posted and from Miss Ellen Bowen — sends 10 copies with No. 8 article in. Professions of regret at departure —. Curtis. Judge. Wendel — and [illegible] produce a chorus —. Mrs. Wells comes for her telegram; coming [illegible] means a proof of a new book with H P B's portrait in it as a [illegible]. [illegible] writes to write [illegible] of board. H P B gives Mrs. Wells the two vases.

10 Copies of Hartford ~~Daily~~ [illegible] ~~[illegible]~~ [illegible] & flattering article. Sent copies to Moseley, ~~[illegible]~~ and Morse, & Thomas, (& sent Copy to Washington to discomfit Evans. Postal card from Annie Brown. Wants card photo. — if not ready — to India. Postal card from H.S.O. writes of great success — going last night to Washington — [illegible]. Last night Judge slept here. H.P.B. went out for postage stamps — another [illegible] row with [illegible] Cheek swollen again. A row with Jenny. Claim. $ I owed her by H.S.O. — friend Wimb & H.P.B. neither could satisfy her. W. gave her $ 2. and she swore that her landlord would put her on side walk. Can't help it. Somewhat able to get money for "body." and one [illegible] for Jenny — no orders.

Wrote to Miss F. E. Burr asking for pictures & Flamberg for papers.

Dinner. Telegram from W. Q. Judge to Wimb: "Motion denied" etc. — W. in despair and prison circles again. Time to clear out.

Evening. Mrs Haskell of 116 West 29th St. with daughter a young girl studying medicine; brought a Mrs Elizabeth K. Churchill, from Providence, editorial writer — going to write ~~[illegible]~~ up, and Miss Alice C. Fletcher, and Dr Bennett, a psychic doctor (whatever [illegible]). Mrs Haskell Envites H.P.B. after [illegible] up [illegible] and [illegible] as her [illegible] for a few days with [illegible]

Judge came early. The only thing he asks Weird to do is to keep quiet till his departure; but our Don Quixote cannot promise it. Well, if he gets into jail it will be his own fault, and then —— good bye. Me waiting. Letter from Junior to Me. Has good hopes of making his entree into Bromley with the great seal stamped upon his backside. Vulcano. Got samples of [illegible] for [illegible] — so much the less trouble for [illegible]. Letter from Mrs Ames. Supplicates to come & see her. Says her Ned is overjoyed at the idea. Don't feel like it — don't feel at all!

Taffy in Liverpool we suppose. — 12 days more! Marble came. Carpentering over the broken chair to make it look respectable at the auction sale. — Sale Tuesday [illegible] He passed the whole afternoon preparing all, [illegible] picture frames and sticking [illegible] good, & [illegible] [illegible] went away after dinner to [illegible]. [illegible] remained alone till [illegible] then came [illegible] and remained till 12.

A letter from Rictord & Bog informing of the arrival from Russia of a parcel. Went down town with W.

Just come from Rich. & Bog. Received Jelikovsky's book and papers; also letter stating in despair that no parcel had arrived yet from America! And this on the 27th of October, five months after it was sent. Olcott has to see, or get insurance money back.

W. got cold again, I think. the unfortunate empty rotten old body!

After dinner Wimb. was sorely surprised by the arrival of Fields and Moses. Thought they were going to arrest him. They came for a compromise. If he cannot make a fool of himself he will be free of all trouble tomorrow. He plays his last card.

Evening. Hesse and Billing. Wimb. went to his office. When at 12 they wanted to go home, the door down stairs could not be opened! Latch & knob were broken. They returned & sat till 2!! At last H. P. B. suggested that a policeman should be called through kitchen window, and he broke door and so liberated them. Wimb. came home half past two.

No letters from H. S. O. A letter from [illegible] Burr, with a dollar enclosed in it for my portrait and for him as it always represents him as if drunk. Wants me to write for the paper upon [illegible] [illegible] to go and have some made to-day.

Letter from Billing — says a voice was heard in the drawing room which told them there was [illegible] for [illegible] in London who should be taught by them [illegible] thoroughly when asked who he was — answered: "One of the [illegible] from India". Thomas was present.

Judge came this morning. Last night went to Tiffany and learned that parcel was just received safely and that Mme Jelihovsky had sold her bed for 30 roubles. She must have been starving.

Wimb. wound up matters — all safe [illegible] sold monkey and brought money. H. P. B. wrote [illegible] the whole day preparing for auction. Bought a [illegible] room trunk 4 doll. Had photos taken [illegible] 3 a [illegible]

Evening. Letters from Otis Alexander, [illegible] and three for Olcott. Marble, Batchelor [illegible] from Montreal.

Sunday, December 8, 1878.

Miss Potter came and she, H P B & Wimb. went off to photographer. H. P. B. was taken with Wimb. a group!! Miss Potter will call on Tuesday again.

We write from the closet room, uncomfortably occupied by H.S.O. when Marble drove us in under the pretext of auction. Sent Ghars with Carter's attack on H. P. B.'s Lottery to Hurrychund, Moolji, Thomas & other Ala. ... Also letter to Vera Jelihovsky.

Pitts was the first to make his appearance — and welcome; for Fanny went away at three, and Marble drove us nearly crazy fidgeting.

Evening: Visitors. Wachtmeister & Clough — Alter wants his diploma. Then Carter, — Maynard with a Captain Hammond (a mystic & a ... of a Rosicrucian); then Tom, with Wimb. & O'Donovan; finally Parsons, — broke gas-lamp, and carried off lots of rubbish — Marble went to sleep on four chairs with a mattress in dining room.

To-morrow good bye all. But — will H.S.O. be ready? That's the question. An only one week more! God help him, if he fails.....

[illegible]

Went to bed at four and was aroused at 6 [illegible] by Marble who locked the door and Jenny could not get in. Got up breakfasted and went off to meet [illegible]. [illegible] at [illegible] most infernal row and [illegible] at auction. All went for a song [illegible] they say in America. If Marble suspected [illegible] in [illegible] he did the same in jail. [illegible] sold at auction Levi's, the landlord's window shades for 50 cents!!!

Carter came to look out for an article in the sale. Levi the landlord came & demanded his money believing H. S. O. was going away with the furniture. The grocer insulted Jenny and saying that over $100 being due to him he would not trust for one penny more. Elegant.—

Auctioneer took big clock & promised to sell for 60 dollars.

Capt. [illegible] came with Maynard. gave the grip and pass word of the [illegible] T. S. and Thompson was accepted as a Fellow— signed the obligation paid Maynard $5 [illegible] to be sent to [illegible] and went off.

5 o'clock. Every thing gone! [illegible] de Salon —. adieu.

Evening Carter came to write article. Marble prostrated [illegible] gone again. — Evans from Philadelphia turns up to [illegible] [illegible]. [illegible] H. S. O. makes his appearance [illegible]

[illegible]

We breakfast on a board, three inches wide. Letter from Daniel, re David's article in Herald [illegible] Observatory. Appoints a reporter from the Graphic [illegible] interview [illegible] to respectfully [illegible] to the [illegible].

H. P. W. [illegible] to [illegible] Cincinnati — to [illegible] Hartford and to [illegible] to send him back [illegible]. Poor [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] a sudden [illegible] [illegible] wants to join the [illegible] [illegible] applications.

Evening — [illegible] 100 [illegible]

H.S.O. gone up early. Wimbr and Judge trying to help H.P.B. To day the trunks [illegible] — They do go — one of Hurrychund Bombay. So much the less — [illegible] feeling a sudden Love for HPB sends carriage and boy after her. Position refused. — Miss Potter comes & wants to join Theosophical. Promises to send to H.S. Vedanta. Marble comes & — HPB falls asleep.

H.S.O. returns with photograph weighing 100 pounds. General Doubleday came. — Went away as he came. Wimb. on as jealous with the club man again & He takes it easy. Poor H.S.O. had barely the time to swallow three spoonfuls of soup and went off. H.P.B. dines alone with Charles — puffing and Marble jabbering. H.S.O. will have to go to Philadelphia. We send trunks by train on Monday night & and go — when H.S.O. writes he is ready. Wise determination of "Old Horse."

Marble — fidgeted and sent telegram to A. Wil[illegible]

Monday, December 16, 1878.

[illegible] At [illegible] went to [illegible] [illegible] up. [illegible] [illegible] into [illegible] and destroyed papers. Arranged many [illegible] back [illegible]. [illegible] at office [illegible], [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] Tomlinson [illegible]. Wrapped the [illegible] [illegible].
Evening. [illegible], brought presents to [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Campbell [illegible] & wife Tomlinson. [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]. Letter from Nancy, [illegible] and [illegible].

Great day! Olcott [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] thought going to Phil. at 12. [illegible] stopped in [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] money coming [illegible] and received his [illegible] pending he concluded to send [illegible] New York tomorrow [illegible] the day [illegible] Doctor came and gave them [illegible] Wimbridge brought [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Bombay and [illegible] papers shaky fingers but made [illegible] useful [illegible] the whole day. What next? All dark — but [illegible]

Consummatum est

Olcott returned at 7. with the tickets for the British steamboat the "Canada". [illegible] [illegible] till 11 1/2. Curtis & Judge passed the evening. Maynard took H.P.B. to dinner to his home & she returned home at 9. Maynard made a present of a tobacco pouch. Charley out! At nearly 12 H.S.O. and H.P.B. took leave of the chandelier and drove off in a carriage to the steamer. [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

Passed 1st night on the "Canada". Got [illegible] in wet blankets and passed a sleepless night. [illegible] Saw the last of us and we did leave the American soil on the 17th. H.P.B. in terror of fear for H.S.O. (Kali) & Wimb. (Sinclair) who both had a right to prevent their leaving America — till the moment of departure. Instead of leaving at 11 the steamer left at 2 1/2. Both Judges came on board – Curtis, Purdy, O'Donovan, MacGrath. Some [illegible] brought the P.B. a silver tankard with the [illegible] Good fellow. Tom remained with O'Donovan till the last moment. Touching scene — he on deck she waiting on wharf. Poor girl. She really felt for us. At last we darted off at 3 – ran three or four miles and — dropped anchor off Coney Island waiting for tide. H.P.B. who had begun breathing collapsed in fear again for Kali might hearing of H.S.O. departure on the 17th send after him etc. etc. No real fear, but great attention in order to ward off danger from H.S.O.

Evening. Made acquaintance with a Mr Wise, Mr & Mrs Bigton, a Rev. and a young Mr Wandsborough. After tea theological dispute with the Rev.

Magnificent day. Clear, blue cloudless but devilish cold. Fits of fever lasted till 11. (the body is different to money — Spirit willing but flesh very weak). At last at 12½ the pilot took the steamer across the sandy bar. Fortunately we did not get stuck in the sand. (No danger of that. O) All day eating — at 8. 12. 4 & 7 H P B eats like three hogs. Wrote letters to Judge. Billing — London & Brosnan. [illegible] wrote to Bom. Yesterday morning Judge brought to me on the steamer [illegible] Hurrychund's letter of the Cost I will receive from him in America. (How very wise!) [illegible]

Still splendid weather, wind abaft, and sea very quiet. Slight motion to ship but not enough to speak of. Yet KPB the only woman at table.

Last eve after tea had my first set-to with the Revd. Stunge (who has a mouth like a sturgeon). He is an eloquent, oily chap but apparently an easy antagonist to handle. The debate drew from Capt Layton the admission that Missionaries were an unmitigated nuisance. He believed they caused the Sepoy Mutiny.

Here follows a train of days

Good weather. Little motion. Monotonous & stupid. Several songs with the Revd Sturge. Eating all day
